

WHATS CRASHED AND WHERE

JUNE 26, 2008 (MIAMI, Florida-USA) - An ultralight plane crashed into the roof of a South Miami-Dade hangar. Rescuers climbed a ladder to free the pilot from the plane, lodged in the roof of the hangar. The pilot was able to climb down with some help and was taken by helicopter the hospital to be evaluated.

JUNE 27, 2008 (TAMAN CEMPAKA, Indonesia) - A trainee pilot and his flight instructor cheated death when their light two-seater aircraft crashed into the compound of a house in Taman Cempaka. The Eagle 150B crashed and snapped into two, injuring the pilot and flight instructor. Both were rushed to the Ipoh Hospital.

JUNE 27, 2008 (SAN MARCOS, Texas – USA) - A firefighters near the ruins of a turbo prop plane after it burned. Firefighters quickly knocked down the fire in side the hangar at San Marcos Municipal Airport but a 28-passenger turboprop plane was destroyed.

JUNE 28, 2008 (MOSCOW, Russia) - All five people aboard a light aircraft were killed in a crash in the Moscow region. The crash occurred shortly after take-off. Engine failure is thought to have caused the accident. The plane is reported to have hit power cables and burst into flames as the pilots were trying to make an emergency landing.

JUNE 30, 2008 (KHARTOUM, Sudan) - An Ilyushin-cargo plane crashed shortly after taking off from Khartoum airport, exploding into a fireball and killing all four crew, witnesses and officials said. It was the fourth fatal air accident in Sudan in two months. The accident happened less than a kilometre (half a mile) from the airport, just seconds after it took off.

JUNE 27, 2008 (FLAGSTAFF, Arizona-USA) - In one of the worst air accidents in Arizona's history, two medical helicopters crashed in midair Sunday near a

