In the heat of the moment, make every second count.

Panther and Airwolf Airport Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) vehicles from Rosenbauer are the heavy-duty answer to jobs that don't leave room for mistakes. State-of-the-art technology puts control of the entire apparatus in the hands of a single operator, so your team can get to the task of saving lives without a second thought to the apparatus. When you're counting seconds, count on Rosenbauer ARFF vehicles to get the job done.
