

WHATS CRASHED AND WHERE

JUNE 24, 2006 (UPLAND, California – USA) - FAA investigator, right, takes photos of the remains of a Cessna Citation Encore jet airplane that crashed after trying to land at Cable Airport in Upland at about 10:32 p.m. on Saturday June 24, 2006. The three passengers escaped and were transported to area hospitals.

JULY 2, 2006 (HAMBURG, Germany) - Firemen and police investigators stand between scattered debris of a plane crash in Hamburg. Four people were killed and two seriously injured when a seaplane used for sightseeing crashed near the harbour in Germany's northern city of Hamburg

JULY 3, 2006 (MONTROSE, Colorado - USA) - Smoke billows from a single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza plane in Montrose that was trying to land at a nearby airport when it slammed into an unoccupied truck, killing the pilot and a passenger

AFJ - September / October 2006

JULY 8, 2006 (IRKUTSK, Russia) - A Russian S7 Airlines Airbus A-310 passenger plane carrying 201 passengers skidded off a rain-slicked runway in the Siberian city of Irkutsk on and plowed through a concrete barrier, bursting into flames. 131 people were killed.

JULY 10, 2006 (MULTAN, Pakistan) - A Pakistan International Airlines passenger plane crashed soon

